No Cigarettes in Tennessee

Nov. 19.—The Supreme Court of the United States on Monday decided that a State Legislature may prohibit the sale or giving away of cigarettes, cigarette paper or substitute within the confines of its own State.

The case was that of William B. Bustin, an agent of the American Tobacco Company, against the State of Tennessee. The Legislature of Tennessee had passed an act making it a misdemeanor, punishable by a fine of not less than $50, "for any person, firm or corporation to sell, offer or to bring into the State for the purpose of selling, giving or otherwise disposing of any cigarettes, cigarette paper or substitute for the same."

THE FARM AND TURF.

Asa Jewell, of Lexington, bought privately over 40 horses and mules.

Thomas Dunlap, of Montgomery county, sold nine yearling mules at $100 each.

Tice Ashurst sold to Jonas Wiel Tuesday 23 head of 1,400-lb cattle, at 4 1/2 cents, delivered at once.

C. Alexander, Jr., bought of H. Harp and J. E. Cantrill, 104 feeders, in Georgetown, last week.

T. J. Curtis, of Lincoln county, sold to Columbia, Tenn., parties sixty yearling mules at $75 per head.

R. D. Hunter, of Clark, sold twelve yearling mules to a gentleman in Madison county for $92 per head.

Frank Bedford, of Paris, purchased a lot of cattle from Thos. J. Judy, of North Middletown weight 1498 lbs., at $4.60.

Hibler Bros. shipped 2 car loads of cattle and a car load of hogs to Cincinnati Saturday night, and a load of hogs Tuesday night.

McIntyre & McClintock, of Millerburg, sold a car load of fat cattle on the Pittsburg market Monday, and a car of hogs at Cincinnati; latter at 5c.

A. Renick, of Sycamore, shipped Tuesday two car loads of Shorthorns to the Chicago Fat Cattle Show, now in progress. They are of the Rose of Sharon and Cruickshank families.

A. S. Thompson, returned from Jessamine county last evening, where he purchased of Clark Turney, near Nicholasville, 61 head of extra good feeding cattle. They averaged 1,050 pounds, and the prices 4 1/2 c for 55 head and 6 at 4 cents.

GEORGETOWN COURT.—There was a large crowd in town Monday. Auctioneer B. B. Peak reports 350 cattle on the market. Feeders sold at $3.35 to $4; yearlings at $3.50 to $3.85; heifers, $2.75 to $3; work mules, $95 to $100; horses $25 to $125.

The Sentinel-Democrat says that 2,500 to 4,000 cattle were on the market Monday. Best steers brought 4 1/4, picked 4 1/4, yearlings 3 1/4 to 4, heifers 3 to 3 1/4. Big crowd. S. C. Carpenter, of Millersburg, bought fifteen mules from $80 to $120. Common horses sold from $30 to $100.

Five new cases of small-pox are reported at Wellsburg, Bracken county. Esculapia Springs reports one case, and one hundred cases are reported at Russel, on the C. & O.

TAKE A CAB.

An Accommodation For Travelers That Must Be Tried To Be Appreciated.

The Editor of the Davenport (Iowa) Daily Democrat recently made an Eastern trip, and writes his paper as follows of the Cab Service of the Pennsylvania System:

"It goes without saying that the Pennsylvania railroad, in all its many divisions and branches, is one of the greatest systems of freight and passenger transportation in the world. But it is particularly popular with the traveling public because of the pain it takes to provide the conveniences many railroads overlook. For those not experienced in the ways of the world, especially for women who are journeying long distances alone, the Pennsylvania supplies a service that meets a real want, and at a cost so reasonable that all can afford it. Reference is made to the cab and carriage service, which is so perfect that nothing further is to be desired."

"On the arrival of trains in Philadelphia, Washington, New York and other cities there are always in waiting carriages and competent drivers. These take the passenger to connecting lines and to hotels at a charge that is almost nominal in comparison with the usual uncertain way of getting about—hackmen who, too often, are irresponsible and untrustworthy. The same service is at the traveler's disposal for taking trains and ferries. One may as safely enter a Pennsylvania cab as a Pennsylvania sleeping car."

"This accommodation is no money making one, but it meets a want long felt in a way to be appreciated on the first trial, and to be patronized thereafter. The writer has tried it by night as well as by day, and this unsolicited commendation is not intended so much for the benefit of the Pennsylvania company as it is for the unfortunates who have fallen into the hands of unknown and uncertain persons who too commonly charge unreasonably for what they do. The perplexed traveler who reaches a large city and doesn't know what to do can make no mistake by taking a Pennsylvania cab."
